

RUKURA IRRIGATION PROJECT, ORISSA

About the Project:

Rukura Irrigation Project is located near Mushaposh village in Bonai Sub-Division of Sundergarh District of Odisha. The Project comprises construction of a homogeneous earth fill dam across Rukura nallah in Brahmani Basin. One main canal, off taking from the right side of dam, will irrigate annually an area of 7,648 ha in an ayacut of 5750 ha in Sundargarh District..

Components of the Project under PMKSY-AIBP:

- Homogeneous earth dam of 1133 mtrs. long
- Central spillway of 52 m. long.
- Main canal of length 10.872 Km.
- Head-regulator
- Distribution network of length 107.45 Km

District Benefitted:

1.Sundargarh

Central Assistance:

DoWR, RD&GR, Govt. of India has provided amount of Rs. 88.78 Cr. as Central Assistance (CA) under PMKSY-AIBP out of total latest estimated cost of Rs. 240.22 Cr.

FIELD DRAIN

RUKURA MAIN CANAL